The infolent and arrogant letter of M. Champagny, published in this day's paper, will be read with indignant feelings by every citizen who feels for the honour and independence of his country As much as we justly detell England-convinced as we are that her conduct would have fully justified the United States in unsheathing the sword against her-yet, every nation ought to be the judge of the injury they may have fustained, and of the mode of redrefs which they ought to purfue. And we have no doubt the reply of our government has been fuch as to convince even Napoleon that we are not to be dictated to.

Two ships, three brigs, and a schooner, passed the falls of Ohio on the 23d of April, and anchored in safety at Shippingport.

DIED, at St. Helena, on the 24th of March last, Mr. GEORGE L. GRAY, formerly editor of the Anti Democrat, of Baltimore.

Those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, will unite in testifying the many excellent qualities of his head and heart. If warm affections; a generous and liberal mind, together with very confiderable literary attainments, call for the sympathy of his furviving friends, his loss will not be known without regret, and his having left a disconsolate mother, widowed wife, and fatherless children, will confiderably increase the diffress of his relatives and friends on this melancholy occasion.

POSTSCRIPT.

FROM PAPERS BY YESTERDAY'S PACKET.

From a Philadelphia paper of May 28. On Thursday last failed from New-Castle, on a cruize, (no doubt against the Americans,) the French privateer schooner Superior, capt. Brevard. Ahis captain, after having captured Americans, and maltreated a number of our citizens at various times, had the impudence to enter our port, to refit his veffel with new bulwarks, and other conveniencies to a privateer, take in a large stock of provisions as per lift below, by permission at least of our custom-house, and no doubt of the executive-and fail again without any interruption. She also, we are told, took a large fum of money to the amount of 6,000 and some say. 60,000 dollars, [faid to be on account of the French government.] This needs no comment-facts speak? louder than words.

" Port of Philadelphia, May, 1808 Permit capt Brevard to laden on board the armed French schooner, 25 barrels of biscuit, 2 casks red wine, 50 barrels flour, 4 quintals rice, 15 bbls. beef, 6 do codfish, 15 do. pork, 4 do. cheese, 4 do pease, 40 gallons vinegar, 2 hhds, French brandy, 4 kegs hogs lard, I do: butter, 4 quintals onions, 3 jars beef allam de, I do. pickled pork, 2 de. fresh butter, 2 hafk: sweet oil; 2 boxes gin, 65tb. codfish, 50lb. fugar, 10 gallons brandy, 12 doz' porter, 6 hains, 24lbs. sausages, 1lb. pepper, 24 doz eggs. Being free according to law."

[The above is the privateer which captured the schooner LOVELY LUCY, on board of which was the late Mr. WM, CAMPBELL, as mentioned under the Baltimore head in this day's Gazette.]

FATAL DUEL.

An altercation, ariling from political discussion, between Mr. Thomas Lewis, and Mr. John M'Henty, at Pullable, Virginia, the former challenged the latter to fight with piftols; Mr. M'Henry, declined that infrument, and th y concluded to use iffes! they met; and both fell. Lewis was that through the heart; M'Henry a little below; he died the day tollowing. They fought-and with rifles-at fifteen [Fed Gaz.]

The American Citizen fays there is a republican majority in the N.Y. House of Representatives of 22.

On Thursday last the bones of 11,500 persons, said to have died in the prison this during the revolutionary war, were formally interred on Long-Island. The New-York Citizen fays, " The day was one of devotion. Bufiness was suspended .- The proce .fion formed at the Park, agreeably to arrangements previously published, moved through the streets to the places of embarkation. The concourse of spectators in the streets, the houses and upon the house tops, was immenfe. It feemed as if every man, woman and child in the city, was anxious to view this scene, of national piety. The wharfs and places of embarkation were to thronged as feemingly to menace perional fafety, and yet in the passage to and from Brooklyn of many thousand persons, no accident happened, so admirably were the arrangements made and executed. At Brooklyn, twenty ladies dreffed in white, with black crape veils joined the procession and added interest to the scene. Arrived at the tumb, the reva Mr. Williston delivered an appropriate prayer in a strain of unusual eloquence. He was followed by Dr. De Witt, the orator of the day, in an address finely composed and delivered amid the enthusiastic plaudits of the furrounding spectators. When the sepulchral rites were performed, the procession returned to the park in this city, where it was difmiffed."

Very like a whale .- We find the following queer & article in the New-Bruntwick Royal Gazette of the 23d of February last :

ST. JOHNS. (N. B.) February 22. Arrived here on Fi day m rning from St. Andr ws, the Packet Speedy, capt. Johnston, with five paffengers, viz. Mr. and Mr. Price and Mr. M'Kenzie, of this city, Mr. M'Master, of St. Andrews, and Mr. Hafluck, an English gentleman. Capt. J. informs that on Wednetday evening the 7th inft. the wind being a head, and appearance of a snow storm, he came to anchor in Blil's harbour; that at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning they were surprised by a violent agitation of the vessel-capt. I. can convey but a faint idea of his aftonishment on observing the vessel going through the water at the rate of fifteen knots per hour, there being only a light wind from the S. E. and when a few minutes previously, the was riding at anchor. The mystery was unravelled on his observa ing a huge whale that seemed to have entangled himfelf in the cable, and it was probable the vessel would be dragged alhore, being already removed from her an-chorage 3 miles, and in a dangerous from the water running in at the hawfer holes, cost deemed it prudent to cut the cable, from which the while immediately disengaged himself—capt. I can only account for this most assonishing circumstance by the fuppolition that the whale was near the veilet, in purfuit of herrings, and as the tide was fetting in, and the wind from S. E. the cable being flack under foot, he wind have colled it round his body, and drawn it tight by endeavouring to extricate himself.

We flare this remarkable circumstance on the authority of the respectable evidence which accompanied the detail.

We certify that the circumstances cited above are dames Price,
